

Training Contract

Standard Terms and Conditions

1. Consultant Training

- (a) The Principal engages the Consultant as an independent consultant to provide the Training to the Principal on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement and the Consultant accepts the engagement.

2. Fee

- (a) The Principal will pay the Consultant the Fee for the Training.
- (b) The Fee is inclusive of all the Consultant's costs except as expressly provided in this agreement.
- (c) The Fee is GST exclusive unless provided otherwise.
- (c) The Consultant will provide the Principal with a tax invoice for the Fee and the Principal will pay the Consultant the Fee including GST prior to the course start date.

3. Cancellation

- (a) The Principal may only cancel Training in writing.
- (b) If Training is cancelled, the Principal must pay the following:
- i. 3-5 working days before the Training was scheduled 50% of the Fee.
 - ii. 2 full working days or less before the Training was scheduled 100% of the Fee.

4. Transfer

- (a) The Principal may only transfer to another training course if they notify the Principal of the proposed transfer at least two full working days before the Training is scheduled.
- (b) If the Principal wants to transfer to a different training course less than two full working days before the Training is scheduled, this is treated as a cancellation and clause 3 applies.

5. Substitution

Substitution of an attendee of Training may be made at any time and no fee will be incurred.

6. Consultant's obligations

The Consultant will ensure that Training is provided safely in a diligent, careful, skilful and competent manner.

7. Occupational Safety & Health

If the Training or any part thereof is to be performed at the Principal's premises, the Principal shall ensure a safe work environment and the Principal agrees to comply with all applicable occupational safety and health legislation.

8. Relationship of the Parties

The relationship between the Principal and the Consultant is that of a principal and independent contractor. Nothing contained in this agreement will constitute or deem the Consultant or any of its employees or agents to be a partner, employee or agent of the Principal.

9. Confidential Information

During the term of this agreement and for a period of five years after termination of this agreement, the Consultant will not:

- (a) disclose any Confidential Information without the Principal's prior written approval; or
- (b) use or allow any person to use the Confidential Information for any purpose other than the performance of the Training except to the extent the disclosure or use is required by law or for the Consultant's record keeping purposes.

10. Intellectual Property

- (a) The Principal agrees that all Materials and all right, title and interest in the Materials developed as a result of this agreement vest in the Consultant and will be the property of the Consultant.
- (b) The Principal hereby assigns to the Consultant without further compensation, all Intellectual Property Rights in all or any part of the Materials (which includes all past, present and future Materials) throughout the world or other material or subject matter created by or on behalf of the Principal whether under this agreement or otherwise.

11. Termination

- (a) Either party may terminate this agreement if the other party commits any material breach of any provision of this agreement and the material breach is not remedied within one week of written notice.
- (b) This agreement may be terminated by either party without cause at any time by giving 30 days notice to the other.

12. Insurance

The Consultant must take out, keep current, and produce to the Principal on request, evidence of:

- (a) personal disability, accident, travel and workers' compensation insurance in respect of persons provided by the Consultant to perform Training under this agreement; and
- (b) public liability and professional indemnity insurance in an adequate amount according to industry practice.

13. Indemnity

The Consultant agrees to indemnify the Principal against all damages, loss, liabilities and claims arising directly from:

- (a) a breach by the Consultant of its obligations under this agreement;
- (b) any negligent act or omission of the Consultant in connection with the performance of the agreement, provided always that the Consultant will not be liable to the extent that the liability was caused or contributed to by the Principal.

14. Debt Recovery

The Principal agrees that it will pay all costs, including debt collection agency fees and solicitor's costs, incurred by the Consultant in taking steps to recover any monies owing to the Consultant whether or not legal proceedings are issued for recovery of the monies.

15. General

15.1 Whole Agreement

The Proposal, Training Contract Standard Terms and Conditions and any Schedules comprise the whole agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter and replace any prior agreement, arrangement or understanding concerning the subject matter.

15.2 Precedence of Documents

If there is any conflict between the documents constituting the agreement, the documents will rank as follows:

- (a) Proposal;
- (b) Training Contract Standard Terms and Conditions; and
- (c) Schedules.

15.3 Variation

A variation to this agreement must be in writing and signed by the parties.

15.4 Severability

Any provision of, or the application of any provision of, this agreement which is void, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction does not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction or of the remaining provisions in that or other jurisdiction.

15.5 Counterparts

This agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts. All counterparts, taken together, constitute one instrument. A party may execute this agreement by signing any counterpart.

15.6 Governing Law

This agreement is governed by the laws of Western Australia. Each Party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Western Australia.

15.7 Assignment

A party may not assign the benefit of this agreement or any part of it without the prior written consent of the other party, which may not be unreasonably withheld.

15.8 Principal's terms and conditions not a part of the agreement

If the Principal supplies the Principal's terms and conditions on any document at any time (including on consignment notes or other documents) the Principal's terms and conditions will be of no legal effect; and not constitute part of the contract for the performance of the Training, even if a representative of the Consultant signs a document that indicates that the Principal's terms and conditions apply.
