

Letter of Financial Support

The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires that F-1 and J-1 students provide proof of their ability to finance their studies and living expenses while in the United States. This letter of financial support must be completed in full by all F-1 and J-1 nonimmigrant applicants. The Form I-20 (for F-1 students) or Form DS-2019 (for J-1 students) will not be sent to any student unless the University has received this letter of financial support along with current evidence of financial support. Permanent Residents do not need to complete this form, but they must provide proof of their Permanent Resident status.

Provide your family (last) name in all CAPITAL LETTERS as it appears in your passport. Attach a copy of your letter of acceptance from the University, if already issued, and a copy of your passport.

Verification of Funds:

In calculating your expenses, you should keep in mind that Immigration regulations offer limited employment opportunities for F-1/J-1 students. Therefore, you should not anticipate employment or an internship as a means of support while in the USA, and instead you must provide current evidence of your financial support. You must also enclose a letter from your bank, issued on bank letterhead and signed by a bank official, verifying the amount of funds in your account. The amount of financial support listed in the bank letter must be listed in US dollars. Any sponsor(s) you may have (including your parents) must complete the Affidavit of Support section on this form below. If you are using your own funds for your education, then you must sign the Affidavit below.
